Editor and Staff

For this year's yearbook, the editors and staff put in a great deal of time and effort to make it the best yearbook TFHS has ever seen. We worked extra hard making sure that it was exceptionally great for the seniors since this would be their last high school yearbook. Our yearbook staff was excellent and was able to get a lot done. Our advisor, Mr. Dziura, went above and beyond to make sure that we all stayed on task, for the most part, and on our toes getting things done on time. On behalf of the the yearbook staff, we hope that you enjoy the Turners Falls High School 2006 yearbook.

Sincerely,
Emily Lapean and Nicole Pielock

Appreciation

Thank You To:

Mrs. Bailey has been a dedicated member of the Turners Falls High School staff for the past five years. We all hear her cheerful voice every morning (and usually a few times throughout the day) making sure we're all wide awake for the announcements. She greets everyone who comes into the school with a friendly smile. The students of TFHS would like to give Mrs. Bailey our thanks and appreciation for all that she does to make our days a little brighter!

Mrs. Bailey

Mrs. Neville

Mrs. Neville has been a vital part of the lives of students here at TFHS. It is our honor to recognize her actions and dedicate the following appreciation on her behalf. Mrs. Neville's classes are all filled with generosity, kindness, and most importantly love. Her visual and hands-on methods of teaching are extremely essential to the student's learning abilities. Students not only seek guidance from her during the learning sessions but come to her as a friend inside and out of school. She has the capability to make you strive to become a better individual and is committed to bring out the best in others. Thank you Mrs. Neville for the devotion and respect you have given to your students.

Class of 2006

It seems like just yesterday, the class of 2006 were little freshmen wandering the halls trying not to get lost on the first day of our high school career. We have all grown and "matured" since that first day and now that we are approaching the end of our high school career, we remember all of our experiences at TFHS, good and bad.

Our ninth grade year was full of new and exciting experiences. Just having passing time and finding the classrooms was an experience in itself, not to mention trying to figure out what lunch we have. Our class got right into school spirit with our A&W Root Beer themed float for Booster Day. Our Knight was Ian Herzig and our Lady-In-Waiting was Allison Murphy. Unfortunately our float didn't stay stable during the parade and we ended up having to hold up the bottom of our car. Then our class got started in fundraising. We sponsored a Valentine's Day dance and quickly learned that dances don't raise as money as much money as they cost to put on, but everyone still had a good time. We decided that catalog fundraisers were the way to go. Freshmen year was also when we got hit with the No Hat Rule and got use to hearing "Where's your ID?"

Sophomore year started with mislabeled classrooms and eating our lunch in the gym. That's right... construction time! Our classes often got disturbed by the sound of jackhammers and drills. We were often being moved from room to room while construction workers measured and made plans. Again the class of '06 got into the spirit with our That 70's Float for Booster Day. Just being sophomores we were still learning how to make a float... we learned that people were not a good idea to make, as our John Travolta fell on to our disco floor. Our Duke was Jeff Rose and our Duchess was Kara Mulligan.

We kicked off our junior year with excitement knowing that we were no longer considered to be just "little kids" anymore. The construction was coming to an end and the sounds of hammering subsided. Being juniors we got smarter about float making. The theme was Cities and '06 chose Viva Las Vegas. Our float was definitely one of our better ones... it was just a little small. Our Prince was Josh Matusz and our Princess was Ashley Laramie. We began to fundraise more in order to put on a phenomenal prom, which we did. Our prom was held at the Sheraton Hotel in Springfield and our theme was "What Dreams Are Made Of".

Finally... it's our senior year! The day we never thought would come! Because of our classes fundraising talents we were able to afford to take our class trip to Disney World! The theme of Booster Day was Disney Movies and our class chose The Lion King. Again, we had another unfortunate float making experience when our backdrop landed on Pride Rock right before the parade began. Our King was Tyler Deruiter and our Queen was Stacy Leveille. Our senior year was filled with bittersweet memories and feelings. We are all very excited to begin the next chapter in our lives; however, we will greatly miss all the many special people who have touched our lives in so many ways while we were here. Our class would like to give a special thanks to our class advisor Mrs. Connor, who stuck by us for four years, from the cold nights of float making to the day we finally walk to accept our diplomas. We would like to thank her for her dedication and patience with us and for helping us through every step of our high school career.

Sincerely,
Emily Lapean, Class Historian and the rest of the 2006 Officers

Class of 2007

CLASS OFFICERS
Vice President: Haley Trenholm. President: Julianne Rosewarne. Historian: Alysia Galbraith. Treasurer: Ben Garber. Secretary: Jenna Lapachinski. Officer-at-Large: Chris Seymour

The class of 2007 has had an amazing junior year. For Booster Day, the theme was Disney Movies. We chose Alice in Wonderland. Our float was once again victorious. Can you say "Three-peat"?! Our Prince was Ben Garber and our Princess was Laura Babij. Our annual pie fundraiser was just as successful as last year. This years Breakfast with Santa was great. We raised more money than last year by far. In the spring we sold pizzas again. Our prom took place in May and took place at Look Park in Northampton. Our unity continues to grow stronger and it's hard to believe that we completed our junior year already. We're wicked excited to come back next year as seniors!

Class of 2008

Historian: Lara Ames
Treasurer: Gina Varuzzo, President: Jeff Tela
Secretary: Ali Urban
Vice President Molly Danielle-Greene President: Steph Joly.

Our Sophomore year is almost over and before we know it we will be grduating in the great year of 2008. During the Booster Day celebration, we were "Under the Sea" with the Little Mermaid. Our Duke as Aaron Cappucci and our Duchess was Abbey Daniel-Green. We had a great time making our float even if the class of 2007 took the gold again. This year's fundraisers included, breakfast with the Easter Bunny, a movie fundraiser and working at UMASS games. This year we have finally developed our sense of high school and some of us have started looking at our options beyond high school. It seems amazing that we have lasted though eleven years of schooling, including kindergarten. We have made it this far together; let's finish these last two years off strong! We'll be coming back as juniors in the fall!

Class of 2009

Finally, the class of 2009 has made it to high school! We knew high school would have its challenges, but so far we are doing a great job as the freshmen class. Booster Day was a blast. Since it was our first Booster Day and we are learning, our float was simple, but as the years go on they will get better and better until we reach the top. The theme this year was "Disney Movies". Our class chose Aladdin. We worked at the house of Allison Giknis who was our Lady in Waiting. This year's Knight was Nick Imbimbo. They definitely deserved it! Ms. Devino and Mrs. Ritchie, our class advisors have done great so far keeping us organized and we look forward to our next three years with them. Keep it up class of 2009!

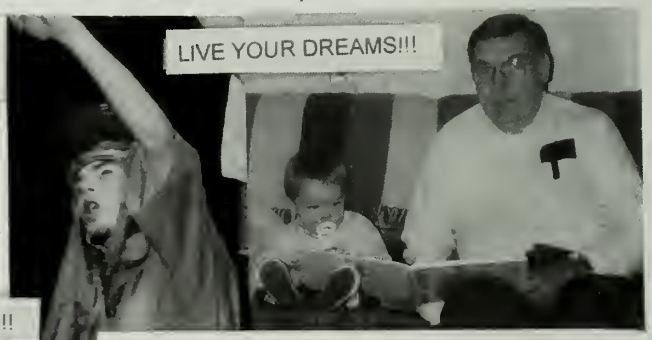
Wow Josh!
It's hard to believe you are a senior! Your years growing up under our wings went by so fast. We've watched you grow into quite the young man. We are very proud of the person you've become, and know that you will be able to achieve anything you set out to do. Your determination will take you places. Congratulations Josh! We love you!
Always,
Mom and Roger

WOW! WOW! WOW!
I bet you are one happy dude that high school is over. No more homework and no more exams. I felt the same way when it happened to me. BUT someday Josh, I bet that you will recall these days, and realize that they were some of the best days of your life! Congratulations and Good Luck In All Your Endeavors. Grampa

WAY TO GO JOSH!!

Josh,
You have been a wonderful cousin. Thank you for all the time we spent together when we were younger at Grammy's house. It meant a lot to me. I hope that you have a good future.
Your cousin Moriah



Josh,
How time flies by! I am so happy I was here to see all of your accomplishments. Great Job!! Grampa would have been very proud of his "King". He will be looking over you. Good luck in the future.
Love You! Gramma

I don't know wud I wanna say. I luv to pway wiff you. And den. Luv, James, age 4. Cousin James. Dat's it now. I would like to see you after you done wiff work. I would luv to pway soccor wiff you when you get done wiff work and your soccor game. I don't know when you gonna get done wiff your soccor game. H4. Never mind. Love, James

Josh,
I'm very proud of you. I knew you could do it. Keep up the good work.
Love, Mimi

Dear Josh,
It's very hard to believe that you are graduating from high school. Everyone says that, right? It seems like only yesterday that you were born. a month and a day before we were married! We cherished those first four years of your life that we considered you like our own! What a special treat to have pictures of "Baby Joshie" on Uncle's shoulder at the end of our honeymoon photo album.
I would say you were around 4 years old and we used to talk on the phone all the time. You were especially excited to talk with "Felix the Bear" You and he would make grand plans! Oh how you looked forward to having Felix come and stay with you for a few days I suppose we could have given him to you, but I think you so much more enjoyed having someone to talk to on the phone I used to sing this little ditty (Do you remember?): "I'm Felix the Bear, a happy, happy bear I like to eat hon-eee, I like to kiss ba-bee. I'm Felix the Bear a happy, happy bear!"
There will always remain a very special place in our hearts for you May you continue to make good choices in your life; choices that will lead you down the right road. Continue to ask questions to get the answers that all of us so desperately need. May you find true happiness Love, Auntie Darlene and Uncle Michael

Stacy Leveille

Stacy,
You will always be my older sister, but I will always be your big brother.
Love, Dan

"A horse is a projection of people's dreams about themselves; strong, powerful, beautiful and it has the capability of giving us excape from our mundane existence."
Pam Brown

Stacy,
We are proud of you and all you have accomplished. Continue to be who you are and may all your dreams come true!
Love, Mom and Dad

Allison Kristina Murphy

Allison,

We are very proud of you and all you have accomplished. You are a confident, intelligent, and determined young woman. Take the lessons you have learned, the gifts you possess, knowledge acquired and make your future. Always keep your head high and stand up for your convictions. Remember it is courage that counts; always maintain the courage to pursue your dreams.
All our Love,
Mom and Dad

Allison,

The first thing I must say is CONGRATULATIONS! YOU MADE IT! It was tough, but you'll be going on to bigger and better things now. It seems like it was just yesterday when we were in the kiddy pool and you threw a big handful of soap bubbles into my eyes! You had a look of accomplishment on your face as I howled in pain. Even today you still have that same look when you have managed to kick me off the couch or devour the last piece of Mom's apple pie. Even with the taunts and teases, you are still my little sister and always will be. I will always be there for you. Thank you for letting me borrow your clothes and make up and for teaching me that I shouldn't talk to you when you have just woken up from one of your frequent naps! I am proud of you and your accomplishments. I am never ashamed to tell someone, "That's my sister; she's awesome."
Love,
Megan

Congratulations Matt Felton! We Are Proud of You!

Adam McCarthy

To Our Adam,
There are not enough words to express how much you mean to us and how so very proud we are of you! You are a caring, wonderful son and a kind, bright, handsome young man who has given us much joy. We wish you happiness and success in the future and want you to know we will always be there to support your endeavors. May all your dreams come true, including someday being taller than your Dad.
We Love You,
Mom and Dad

Dear Adam,
People talk about the future as though you need a plan. I wish for you no hesitation in the moment that will reveal your passions and define your self conviction. All you need is to take action, take risk, and trust in the love of your family as you choose your own path and live your dreams. Think big.
Much Love, Julie

Nate Underwood

Nate,
You're the son we always wished we had. We are so proud of you.
Love--Barabara and Stephen

Nate,
Congratulations on your four great years at T.F.H.S.
Love--Granny Dot

Nate,
Congratulations! We are so proud of your accomplishments and hope you have many more in the years to come.
Love--Tom, Nancy and Sarah

Nate,
You have forever filled our lives with pride and love--our greatest wish for you is happiness always: follow your heart and live your dreams!
Love Always,
Mom and Dad

Nate,
I'm so proud of the young man you've become. Be sure to follow your dreams and live life to the fullest.
Love, Nini

Nate,
I'm so proud of you and all you've done in the past four years--I'm sure the next 4 will be even better.
Thanks for being the brother you are and always knowing how to make me laugh.
Love You!
Car

Nate,
May the most you wish for be the least you get.
All My Best,
Walter

Julie A. Girard

Julie,
You are unique in so many ways. We have always admired your energy and zest for life. You have chosen to lead rather than follow, and that is exemplified by all your achievements.
Thank you for all the love, joy and entertainment you have brought us.
We are very proud of you.
Congratulations.
Love,
Nana & Grampy

When it seems that all the world around me is so vast, unreliable, and frenzied, I am comforted to know that one thing is constant and eternal: the love shared between sisters. Not only are you intelligent, talented, and extremely beautiful, but mature and grounded as well. I am so proud to call you my sister. I love you.
~Lace

Julie,
It seems like yesterday you were born, we blinked our eyes, and you are grown. We are so proud of all you have accomplished, but mostly we are proud of the woman you've become. To accomplish great things, we must not only act, but dream, not only plan, but believe. Believe in yourself as we believe in you and remember, there is a time to let things happen, and a time to make things happen. Stay true to your convictions, keep your sense of humor and know how much we love you.

It seems like yesterday when you started Kindergarten and now you are graduating from high school. The years have flown by so quickly. You have experienced more in your lifetime than some people 3 times your age. We are so proud of you and the individual you have become. Follow your heart and fulfill your dreams, we know you can accomplish anything you set your mind to. We have seen you do this already.

Love you forever and always.
Mom and Dad

Bryce-

I am so proud of you, and I want you to know that you always have your family's support. You are so strong, I know you will succeed in all that you do. Love Jen

Crystal,
You are a beautiful and remarkable young woman. Over the last five years we have watched struggles come and go and have seen you overcome them and grow into a stronger person. We thank God for you each and every day that we have been blessed to be part of your life and you a prt of ours. Our family would not be the same without you. We hope and pray that you have a long life filled with love and laughter. Remember that lifes obstacles are made easier with lots of faith, prayer, and laughter. We love you more than words can say and can't wait to enjoy the years to come together.
With All Our Love, Andy & Nancy

Crystal,
Congradulations! I am so proud of you. I knew you could and would do it. You're stubborn like that. I know everything you have gone through and done to get where you are now. And no one deserves this more than you. You're amazing, talented, smart, and beautiful. Always believe that cuz everyone else already knows it. Your gonna do great things. I have and always will believe in you. I couldn't be happier for you. I love you so much. Don't ever 4get the power of sisters. If you need us, you know we will be there. Congrats again 2 one of the best sisters in the world. Woohoo! You did it!!!

It seemed so long we waited
And suddenly you are here
A beautiful little bundle
With lots of long soft hair.

A face just like an angel
Skin as soft as silk
And tiny rosebud lips
To drink your baby's milk.

Welcome, little Allison,
We're happy to meet you
And hope that all your life
The world is good to you.

Love, Grammy

Dearest Ali,
With love to our beautiful daughter. We are so proud of you. Your high school years have been filled with challenges, yet you have proceeded to keep your life on track. You have every right to be proud of your achievements. Use them to fulfill your DREAMS. Always surround yourself with love and happiness.
Love, Larry and Mom
I will always hold on to our memories past and future.

I can't believe its time to congratulate you on your graduation... it seems like just yesterday that I was writing you your first letter... telling you about how excited I was to be having a daughter. It was just yesterday I was reading bedtime stories to you and brushing your very long hair... there was dance classes, gymnastics meets, softball games and many sleepless nights. Halloween birthday parties, pumpkin carvings and making cookies... bike riding and summer camp. I don't think I can thank you enough for everything that you have taught me. You are a strong beautiful independent woman that has the motivation and strength to go anywhere your dreams take you. I admire your determination to follow your dreams to make a difference... You will always be my sweet little katie... meet me under the old oak tree... Love, Mommy

Stay happy and no matter what we love you. Congratulations! SMILE ~Love, Mom & Dad

Nicole
Wow! Has time flown by or what? I can't believe you're graduating from high school already. We have created some unforgettable memories over the years like our radio shows, dances, and the many inside jokes we share. Soon you will be moving on to bigger and better things and I wish you the best of luck. Never give up on your dreams- they just might come true. It's been a crazy ride being your sister so far and I can only imagine what the future holds. Congratulations on graduating and thank you for all the good times we've shared. Love, Maria

Shane,

As you move on to a new phase in you life I'd like to let you know how much I admire and respect you. Not just because you're my son but because of the person you have become. Your life hasn't been easy. What most people take for granted wasn't even an option for us. Nonetheless, you have emerged fully confident and secure in yourself with a wonderful sense of humor and a quiet dignity I love. Keep focused on the real life- we're almost there!

shane whats up bro. Congratulations on graduation man, high school's done forever! Its crazy cuz i always remember u as that skinny young dude with the huge ass fro when i first would come to global, and its kool to see how you've grown into a young man of your own. Pretty soon you'll be beating up Ian's, I'm sure. But jus wanted to say everyone's proud of you bro, we'll always have webster's dictionary bro!! Congrats again and all the best!

Cyril & Kojo

Shane, you talk too much. You really should learn how to keep more quiet. Congrats on getting out. Good stuff. Keep it up and you'll soon see that good things happen to good people. So goody, goody gum drops. Oh yeah, I don't care how strong you get, I will always have a certain music video starring you and Jesse that I am not afraid to use. Congrats lil' afro Shane.

Anna Lil' Sis,
These 18 years have been great. It has been interesting to see you blossom from a little girl into a bright and beautiful young woman. There was a time when I would have traded you for a peanut butter and jelly sandwich. But looking back I am glad that no one took me up on my offer. I am glad you are my sister-today I realize that no trade would be adequate compensation for the amount of love that you bring to my life every day Thanks Sis, for all that you have given me. We Are Really the...

Megan,
Thank you everyone who has helped me these past five years, especially you, Megan. Ever since I met you almost three years ago you have helped me with my school work and given me all the support in the world to get through school. You're the best thing that ever happened to me. We have a lot of memories that will last forever and I will never forget you. Thanks again.
I Love You,
Jesse

Jesse,
Thank you sooo much for everything that you have ever done for me! I'm so lucky to have you in my life. We've had our times when it seems like nothing matters, but we got through it and it made us closer. Words can't even begin to explain how much you mean to me and how thankful I am to have you around. You're such a beautiful, smart and caring person...don't let anyone tell you differently. Don't let anyone put you down. Thanks for the good times we've shared; there are way too many to write down, but you know what I'm talking about. Crazy rides, Eunice, watching movies, talking all night on the phone, pretend fighting, being manic! And many more where that came from! I'm the luckiest girl in the world! Thank you for being my best friend and always being there when everyone wouldn't listen. You'll always have a special place in my heart and life. 12-20-02 forever!

Anna
Congratulations! It seems like yesterday you were just getting on to the school bus for your first day of school. You have accomplished so much in that time. Your natural curiosity and hard work have served you well. You are a kind caring and thoughtful daughter a generous sister and your family is extremely proud of the beautiful person that you have become. May your dreams continue to be your guide, your honesty your currency and your signature remain the promise of your best effort. You have and continue to make us proud parents.
All our love Mom and Dad

Dear Anna
Before you moved in I was just an ordinary room on the sunny side of the family home in Gill. It wasn't long, however before you began to make changes. The light, streaming into your world through my windows, was bent by lenses, crystals and beach glass into shards of rainbow colors and rays of incandescence. Little engines in vacuum bottles on the window sill whirled soundlessly, powered by the sunlight, as mobiles hanging from the ceiling light moved with the constant motion of the air currents stirred by your ceaseless activity. Sea shells and rock collections, animal bones, skulls and antlers, art projects, antique ink wells and bottles become roommates. In time I became a one-room museum to your curiosity. The only thing we share but do not have is room itself. Every nook is full and every cranny token. The collection of books and items that just can't be parted with, stand piled in dizzying stacks defying gravity itself. But now is your time to defy gravity. I will miss you when you leave, but I will remain here until your return. In your absence the sun will continue to stream through my windows bent by the whims of the deflecting glass, and the mobiles hang relaxed in relative peace. In this moment I will take the opportunity to reorganize and create just a little more space so the treasures of your future you are bound to bring home will also have their place. I have watched you grow as I have helped you grow. Most importantly, I understand the intensity of sunlight streaming into my soul is now deflected and focused by your lens. A lens of your own crafting that now illuminates those dark corners that require understanding, and painting plain white surfaces desperately in need of color. Whereas I must rely on sunny days for light to shine within, wherever you go, you simply need to wake up and smile. Yes I will miss you when you leave. Yes I will await your return, gathering just a little dust to pollinate your future efforts to retrieve some item that has suddenly regained importance. And I will continue to hold these treasures in trust and cherish shared memories forever.
Your Room

Anna
Grampy said when he went to Turners Falls High School he was an outstanding student just like you, his granddaughter. Unfortunately, he also admits that most often he was outstanding next to the principal's office. Congratulations on the many achievements you have earned through your dedication and hard work.

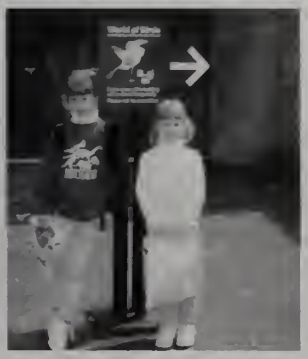
Anna
Congratulations from all of your family in Maine. Best wishes on your college selection and we hope you enjoy all the treasures that Maine has to offer.
Love Gramma Curtis and Family



Anna Some might say I'll be glad you're leaving since you have in the past given me your idea of a haircut and who could forget the times we couldn't stand each other. But through all that we are sisters and friends; you have been there for me whenever I have needed you and I hope I have been there for you. I am truly going to miss you when you go away for college; it's going to be so weird without you. I know that whatever you put your mind to you will succeed at. I wish you the best of luck at college, though I know you don't need it. Congratulations on surviving and graduating high school.

Oh, why you look so sad?
Tears are in your eyes
Come on and come to me now
Don't be ashamed to cry
Let me see you through
'Cause I've seen the dark side too
When the night falls on you
You don't know what to do
Nothing you confess,
Could make me love you less
I'll stand by you.
I'll stand by you.
Won't let nobody hurt you
I'll stand by you.

My Kim,
When this picture was taken, I didn't even know what you looked like, and just look what a beautiful girl you turned out to be! I couldn't be any prouder!---Mom

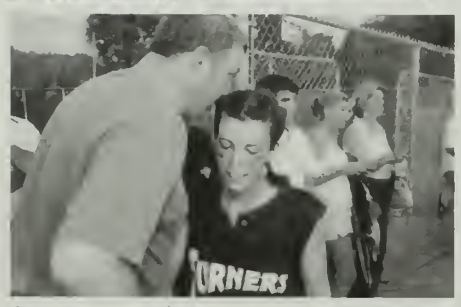
Sisterly love--Maybe mom was thinking of Zach right about now.

Kim,
You can accomplish anything you set your mind to, if you follow the same motivation that helped you compete in sports. Winners never quit and quitters never win. I am so proud of you, so proud to be your father. You will always be my little babe.
Love, Dad

Kim,
My first friend, and one of the best I will ever have. I wouldn't have wanted to grow up alongside anyone else. I look up to you so much. No matter how much time or space comes between us, I will always be here for you. Thank you for all the unforgettable memories.
Congratulation! Love you Kimmis!
Love, Boola

Every once in a while somebody has to be a little bit witchy!

Yellow Day! I should have had it in the bag!



Just remember, if you can't get her out at 1st, just wing it at her ankles. That will take care of her!

Ah, those were the days! We were thin, had hair, and could kneel and get back up!

Here with my girls, same story, "All dressed up and nowhere to go!"

Somebody say, "Party"? I'm always ready

Some things never change!

KENNETH FRANCIS PLEASANT

You entered this world on a warm day in March,
With a great big smile to warm our hearts.
You grew from playing with Lincoln Logs to building with blocks,
Then moved on to bikes, and then driving cars.

You're a wonderful brother and a fantastic son,
And it's your turn to reach for the stars and grow.
But as you look forward, be sure to look back,
On our wonderful days of fun -
The days of "beach face", and "goils" and Hunter and home, when we always enjoyed the sun.

The time has passed quickly, these seventeen years;
The young boy has left us and a young man remains.
He is ever-patient and always kind,
And always, to us, "Lou" is his name.

CONGRATULATIONS LOU
We are so proud of you!

How to Make a Beautiful Life:
Reflections for a daughter on her graduation.
Love yourself.
Make peace with who you are and where you are at this moment in time.
Listen to your heart. If you can't hear what it's saying in this noisy world, make time for yourself.
Enjoy your own company.
Let your mind wander among the stars.
Try. Take chances. Make mistakes. Life can be messy and confusing at times, but it's also full of surprises. The rock in your path might be a stepping-stone.
Be happy. When you don't have what you want, want what you have. Make do. That's a well kept secret of contentment.
There aren't any shortcuts to tomorrow. You have to make your own way. To know where you're going is only part of it. You need to know where you've been, too. And if you ever get lost, don't worry. The people who love you will find you. Count on it.
Life isn't days and years. It's what you do with time and with all the goodness and grace that's inside you.
Make a beautiful life... The kind of life you deserve.
We love you!

Ashley
To say I'm proud would be an understatement of how I feel each time I look at you and see this wonderful, amazing woman my precious little girl has turned into. You always were so full of light and promise, and through the years you've found your wings and flown. Your life has brought you confidence and wisdom and filled you with a radiance all your own. Today I want to tell you I love you. I always have and always will.
Love Forever, Mom

Ashley
From feeling so proud and protective as you took your first footsteps in life to knowing you couldn't stay my little girl forever. From wanting you to be safe and happy to supporting you as you tried new things. From loving you for who you were to respecting the person you've become. I've loved being the father of a daughter as wonderful as you.
With All My Love, Dad

Ashley,
Having a really close friend is a wonderful thing. But when that friend is also your sister, it's one of the best things in the world. You're one in a million and even if I don't always tell you, I always feel it.
Love, Tyler

Ashley
I remember not to long ago when you were climbing out of your crib in the middle of the night. Throwing stuffed animals into our bed and climbing in and falling asleep. You have grown into a beautiful young woman and I'm very proud of everything you have accomplished. You have such a great future ahead of you and I know you'll accomplish all you set out to do. Remember I'll always be there for you!
Love You Always, Joe

Congratulations as you successfully launch.

Love You -Speddy-

Congratulations Mike,
I am so proud of what you have accomplished and what you will accomplish. I am so glad I have gotten to know you in the past year. You're not only my boyfriend but my best friend. All the memories that we have created will stay with me forever; the drive-ins, Mt. Monadnock, Six Flags ("yehhaaaw"), our snowball fights, and those lazy Sunday mornings sitting with you watching a movie. You have made me so happy. I lo you so much and I will miss you terribly next year. Good luck. Don't forget that, I will always be here for you no matter what.
Love you lots and lots.
